Goodhart Sons Inc uses Wisej for Enterprise Resource Planning

Wisej is chosen for business-critical ERP software at Goodhart Sons, Inc

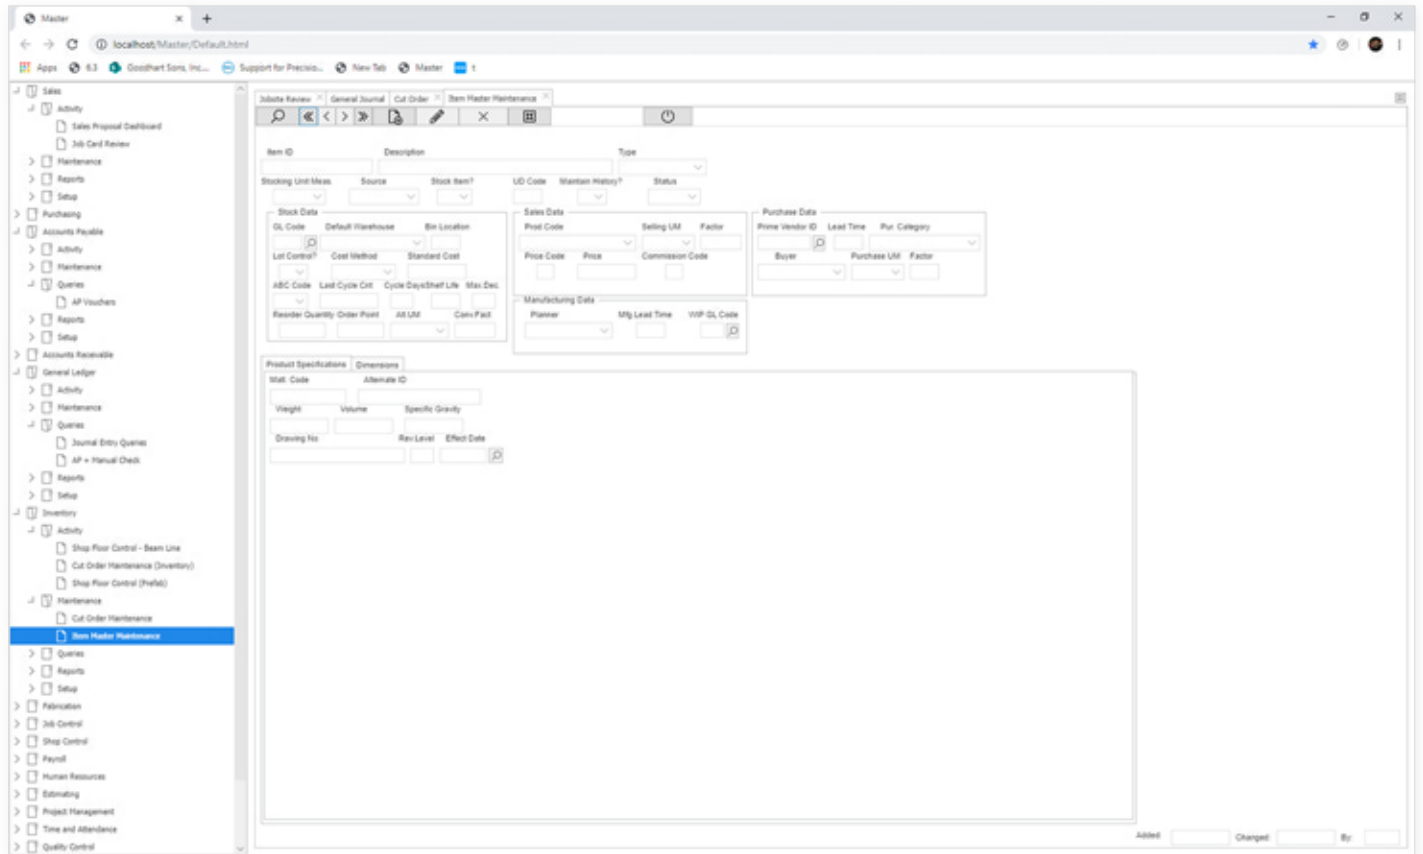

Goodhart Sons Inc needed to upgrade their ERP application. When Microsoft started dropping support for VB6, the developers at Goodhart Sons Inc found that this was going to be a problem. They decided to look for alternatives and ended up hiring an external developer to rewrite the code. After six years, the upgrade was deemed too difficult and cancelled.

As time went on and their VB6 application continued to fall apart, they realized the need for a practical solution. Goodhart stumbled across fecher and Wisej and was able to use their VB6 migration tool to convert the application to a cutting-edge HTML5 application.

Core Benefits of Wisej: VB6 to Web

The application received a fresh UI update and performance enhancements. Goodhart's IT Manager Justin Townshend explains "The performance of the modernized software is actually better than before". "There are only two screens for which we have to tweak some SQL queries manually and adjust what data gets loaded
